

Aurora, Illinois

City Guide

“The Best Mix of Urban & Suburban”

Aurora is a pleasant and fun filled city located right in the outer region of the Greater Chicago area in the state of Illinois. It is actually the second most populous city in the state and only 37 miles west of Chicago, covering areas of surrounding counties. Aurora offers savory dining, unique architecture, family attractions, shopping and much more that provides for a fun and unique experience. This glowing city has a diverse arts and renowned theatre scene. Restaurants offer plenty from upscale gourmet to down home diners – experience an explosion of tastes and flavors along with live bands as you relax, celebrate and experience a great ambiance that can be anything from casual and trendy to formal. Grab the kiddos and check out the museums, sporting events, water parks, the Phillips Park Zoo, or Paramount Theatre. Take a bike ride down the Fox River Trail, visit the Regional Fire Museum, or take a walk through the luscious landscapes of the Garden Plaza of Aurora.
