

Green Bay, Wisconsin

City Guide

Green Bay is located in the state of Wisconsin just at the head of Green Bay waters, a sub-basin of Lake Michigan, giving the area the convenience of the coasts, coastal breezes and a pleasing climate. Green Bay has big city amenities in a small town atmosphere. It is becoming one of the Midwest's leading convention destinations. The region has a wide mix of convention facilities, lodging, endless dining and shopping, and an abundance of entertainment and sporting options. In Green Bay, your family will have so much to do and look forward to as you can find everything from theaters and parks to museums and wineries.
