

San Antonio, Texas

City Guide

“Something to Remember”

San Antonio is the seventh most populous city in the United States of America and the second most populous city in the state of Texas. San Antonio’s mix of historical landmarks, a healthy community and exciting attractions makes it the perfect residential city and weekend get-away all in one. Nightlife, sports bars, music, dancing, dining, attractions, family activities, events and so much more combine to make San Antonio so attracting. The River Walk is a popular and must-visit site in San Antonio. It is the local hot spot with paved paths, lush landscapes, shopping boutiques, restaurants, cafes, and historical structures running through the heart of San Antonio. Experience the upbeat vibes during the day and the vibrant nightlife in the evenings at the River Walk. Schlitterbahn Waterpark would be just as fun, holding the title of the Country’s Best Waterpark by the Travel Channel. For more information, visit <http://visitsanantonio.com/>
