

Eagan, Minnesota

City Guide

The city of Eagan lies on the south bank of the Minnesota River, upstream and merging with the Mississippi River. It is located just 15 minutes south of Minneapolis and near the International Airport, Mall of America®, Twin Cities Premium Outlets®, the Minnesota Zoo and many other popular attractions. Also enjoy Cascade Bay, Minnesota's largest outdoor municipal water park. Dining options range from family-friendly restaurants and ethnic choices to a large selection of outstanding steakhouses. Eagan's rolling hills and wooded areas create a naturally serene setting. The city has many inviting parks and nature preserves in which to relax or learn more about Minnesota's abundant natural resources. Whether you enjoy touring lovely gardens, kayaking on a pristine lake or hiking along wooded trails, you can find a quiet spot to unwind and take in Eagan's natural beauty.
