

Tuscaloosa, Alabama

City Guide

“The One and Only”

The One and Only Tuscaloosa is not only home to the University of Alabama, but also home hundreds of restaurants, activities, museums and parks. With a population of over 95,000 and a university enrollment of 37,000, you can get big city perks with a small town feel. In recent years, Tuscaloosa has been named the “Most Livable City in America,” one of America’s “100 Best Communities for Young People,” one of the “50 Best College Towns,” and one of the “Best Places to Launch a Small Business.” Food and drinks aren’t the only things you can find in Tuscaloosa. With five major bodies of water and a beautiful amphitheater, Tuscaloosa has a great mix of attractions, indoors and out. Enjoy wakeboarding on Lake Tuscaloosa or catching the latest up and coming artist at Live at the Plaza. Experience art, music, theatre, and family fun at the Bama Theater.
