

Charlotte, North Carolina

City Guide

"The Queen City"

Charlotte is the largest city in North Carolina, and the second largest city in the Southeastern United States, just behind Jacksonville, Florida. Charlotte ranks 1st among top 10 cities with the best employee engagement (Forbes), and 2nd among 25 largest cities for most desirable place to purchase a home (NerdWallet). Charlotte is a fun place to live as it offers many family friendly activities, attractions, shopping, and much more. Food and culinary is one of a kind in Charlotte. Restaurant Week and the Taste of Charlotte are a couple of the culinary events held for locals to dine like royalty and enjoy live music, festivals and the area's greatest restaurants. Shopping and spa days are among locals favorites, along with sports and recreation involving the Carolina Panthers as they compete at the Bank of America Stadium each fall.
